

π and K decays
shifted away from μ
endcap by 6.2 cm
(5.8 cm in limited statistics
PISA)

Distribution of vertices from pions decaying to muons. By studying single muons versus vertex position, the number of muons that come from long-lived decays (pions and kaons) can be determined.