

A Student Voice

at Brookhaven National Laboratory

Brookhaven is interested in hearing from its students and would like to explore establishing a student organization. This is a great opportunity for your voices, your ideas, and your suggestions to be heard.

First Student Meeting

Monday, June 24th, from 12:15 to 1:15

Berkner Hall Auditorium

Bring your lunch

*Undergraduate Graduate
Post-doc
Welcome*

There are several key missions of a BNL Student Organization, including fostering interactions among students and between students and various Laboratory organizations, and representing the interests of both visiting and resident students in all departments to the BNL community and management. A Student Organization would also help improve the quality of life and educational opportunities at BNL along with providing social events for our student population. Getting involved is a great way to meet people around the Laboratory and learn more about what all the departments and user facilities at the Laboratory are doing.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Jeffrey Mitchell, ext. 3015 or Susan White-DePace, ext. 7959.

